

helping

N

Need help?

If you need help dealing with the impact of crime and trauma in your life call Central Okanagan RCMP Victim Services. We can provide you with emotional support, practical assistance and community referrals.

assistance

Have you been affected by
Assault • Robbery • Serious Crime
Abuse • Break & Enter • Other Crimes
Sudden Death • Natural Disaster

T

The team works in partnership with community and emergency services to help you overcome the impact of crime and trauma so you can live a better life.

Central Okanagan RCMP Victim Services

If you need help call now:

250-470-6242

Serving communities within the Central Okanagan.

Ask us about:

- financial assistance and benefits for victims of crime
- how the justice system works
- the status of the police investigation, court updates and sentencing

Serving our community!

Victim Services workers are able to provide:

- Victims of Crime Act information
- emotional support, practical assistance and referrals
- safety planning
- updates on police investigation and justice proceedings
- assistance with applications for the Crime Victim Assistance Program
- court orientation, support, and assistance with victim impact statements
- education and awareness
- follow-up including registering for notification of the offender's release from custody.

We are located in the Kelowna RCMP Detachment at

350 Doyle Avenue
And further serve West Kelowna & Lake Country RCMP Detachments

If you need help call
250-470-6242.

Central Okanagan RCMP Victim Services

A joint program of the Regional District of Central Okanagan, Ministry of Public Safety and Solicitor General, RCMP, and Westbank First Nation.

