

Have you been affected by

Assault • Robbery • Serious Crime
Abuse • Break & Enter • Other Crimes
Sudden Death • Natural Disaster

We are able to provide:

- Victims of Crime Act information
- emotional support, practical assistance and referrals
- safety planning
- updates on police investigation and justice proceedings
- assistance with applications for the Crime Victim Assistance Program
- court orientation, support, and assistance with victim impact statements
- education and awareness
- follow-up including registering for notification of the offender's release from custody.

If you need help dealing with the impact of crime and trauma in your life call Central Okanagan RCMP Victim Services.

We are located in the Kelowna RCMP Detachment at 350 Doyle Avenue. We further serve West Kelowna & Lake Country RCMP Detachments.

250-470-6242

Serving communities within the Central Okanagan.

Central Okanagan RCMP Victim Services

A joint program of the Regional District of Central Okanagan, Ministry of Public Safety and Solicitor General, RCMP, and Westbank First Nation.

