

NATURALLY YOURS REGIONAL PARKS

JANUARY 2019

View from Goats Peak Regional Park (park not yet open)

Your guide to Regional Parks is always available online!

Take me to the Parks
Guide

New Year, New Look! The Naturally Yours monthly newsletter keeps you up-to-date on upcoming public programs and events in Regional Parks.

Please register where noted by calling 250-469-6140.

Delve deep into the world of local wildlife with Nature Power Hour at the EECO, an interactive drop-in session for all ages. Please call ahead for the current week's topic or follow @regionalparks on Instagram for the latest Power Hour updates! Free. No registration required.

Saturdays through January & February

11:00am to 12:00pm

Come into the EECO for your last chance to see SLoW- The Social Life of Water in the Okanagan Valley. The last day for this travelling exhibit is Sunday January 27th and then the EECO will be closed until February 7th for the installation of the next exhibit, Birds of Prey.

EECO Hours

Tuesday through Sunday

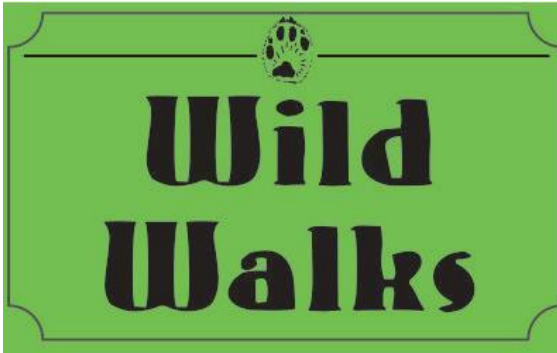

10:00am to 3:00pm

Drop into the EECO for Story Time and enjoy nature based stories, songs, and crafts with your 3-5 year olds. Free and no registration required.

Tuesdays starting January 8th

10:00am to 11:00am

Join a Wild Walks and see your favourite Regional Parks through new eyes! For the first Wild Walks of 2019, we'll be going into Mill Creek Regional Park for the first time since 2017! This park has been closed since 2017 due to extensive flood damage and has only just recently re-opened. Come (re)discover one of our most beloved parks! Free. Please register.

Saturday January 12th

10:00am to 12:00pm

Wednesday January 16th

1:00pm to 3:00pm

For more information please call or drop-in to our visitor centre:

Environmental Education Centre for the Okanagan (EECO)

2363A Springfield Road

Kelowna BC V1X 7N7

250-469-6140

Admission by donation

Open Tuesday through Sunday

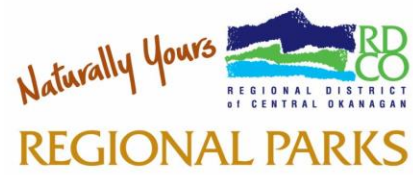

10:00am to 3:00pm

Email the EECO

Visit Regional Parks online

CONNECT WITH PARKS!

Environmental Education Centre for the Okanagan | 2363A Springfield Road, Kelowna, BC V1X
7N7 Canada