

Joe Rich Fire Rescue Is Recruiting

Joe Rich residents who'd like to serve their neighbours and answer the call for help are invited to apply to become a member of Joe Rich Fire Rescue.

Prospective members must live within eight kilometers of Station 51 (11481 Highway 33) or Station 52 (6550 Goudie Road) As well, they must be between the ages of 19 and 65 and be in good physical condition.

Anyone interested in becoming a paid-on-call firefighter can email their name and phone number to jofd.recruitment@cord.bc.ca or call 250-469-6179 and leave their name and phone number. Potential recruits will be contacted regarding the next intake evening. Applications and recruitment information is also available for downloading and printing on the RDCO website www.regionaldistrict.com/firerecruit.

Intake evenings, interviews and physical testing of potential candidates will be scheduled. Training will be provided for successful applicants during the department's regular evening or weekend sessions.

Paid-on-call firefighters come from every walk of life. From school teachers, to tradespeople and paramedics.

Some take the opportunity to parlay the skills they learn and experience they gain by pursuing a full-time career in the fire service.

It's rewarding, exciting and fun!

